

Gustav Gary Seehusen

Philadelphia, USA and Munich, Germany

“Navigating across Borders” - To support clients in utilizing manifold aspects of diversity to enrich their organizational, personal and team culture is a challenge to which I feel fully committed.

Focus

International organizational and Team development for corporations and non-profit Organizations
Coaching for management and teams, particularly in change or Internationalization processes
Conception and execution of trainings in the fields of international leadership, coaching, intercultural communication, Expatriate and Inpatriate preparation
Process and conflict consulting, moderation and mediation

Experience

Born in Australia, German background
Overseas experience, initially in aid projects in Pakistan and Afghanistan
Setup of training centers in the health care sector in Great Britain, Ireland, USA and Germany
Since 1992 Founder and Director of WSA International, Management, Training and Consulting Organization, specialized on internationalization processes
Since 2003 co-founder of INFINITYWSA, Multi-national alliance for international management training in aerospace
Founder Member of IBC

Education

Systemic Organizational development and coaching, I.F.W. Munich, Germany
Change Management Training, Heitger consulting
Systemic family therapy, ZIST (Zentrum für Sozialtherapie) Penzberg, Germany
Certified remedial teacher, Germany and Great Britain
Faculty member and trainer for international organizational, leadership and team development, Management Centre Europe, Belgium & AMA, New York

Personal

Having lived and worked internationally all my life it is pleasant for the moment to have the city of Munich as a good base for family and friends.
A married man happy to be the father of a small lad and three grown up women.

Languages

English
German

g.seehusen@ibct-consultants.com